

Cookies Policy for Quantumisle

Effective Date: 1st November 2024

Quantumisle uses cookies to enhance user experience, analyze site usage, and support our marketing efforts. This Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, the types of cookies we use, and your choices regarding their usage. By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies in accordance with this policy.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device by a website. They help websites remember your actions and preferences (like login details, language, etc.) over time, so you don't have to re-enter them each time you visit. Cookies can also collect data about your browsing habits to improve website performance and deliver relevant content.

2. Types of Cookies We Use

a. Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for our website to function properly and cannot be turned off in our systems. They are usually set in response to actions made by you, such as filling out forms or setting privacy preferences.

b. Performance Cookies

Performance cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources, helping us understand how visitors interact with our website. This data enables us to improve the site's functionality. All information collected by these cookies is aggregated and anonymous.

c. Functional Cookies

Functional cookies enable enhanced functionality and personalization, such as remembering choices you make (e.g., language or region). Disabling these cookies may affect some website functionalities.

d. Targeting/Advertising Cookies

These cookies are used to deliver content more relevant to you and your interests. They may be set by Quantumisle or third-party advertising partners. They collect data about your browsing habits to personalize marketing content and measure the effectiveness of campaigns.

3. How We Use Cookies

Quantumisle uses cookies to:

- Enhance Website Performance: By understanding how users interact with our website, we can improve its layout and content.
- Personalize User Experience: Remembering preferences and settings to make the site more responsive to individual needs.

- Analyze Website Traffic: Through aggregated data that helps us make informed improvements.
 - Support Marketing and Advertising Efforts: Providing relevant content and ads based on user interests and online behaviours.

4. Third-Party Cookies

Quantumisle may allow certain trusted third parties to place cookies on our site for analytics, advertising, or other services. These third-party providers have their own privacy policies regarding the collection and use of data, and we recommend reviewing them for further details.

5. Your Cookie Choices

1. Browser Settings: Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through the browser settings. You can choose to accept or decline cookies or set your browser to notify you when a cookie is being placed.
 2. Opt-Out Options: For certain types of cookies, you may be able to opt out directly via links provided on our site. Please note that disabling cookies may affect website functionality and your user experience.
 3. Cookie Banner: Upon your first visit, you will see a cookie banner that allows you to manage your preferences for cookies, including the ability to accept only essential cookies.
